

Drama and Theatre Studies A Level

What will happen in my first week?

You will immediately go into rehearsals for a short piece of theatre that will be performed at the end of induction in front of a packed lunchtime audience in our industry standard new Cranton Playhouse theatre.

What can I look forward to in my first year?

As part of this varied course you will have the opportunity to be involved in many trips to some of the leading theatre shows in the country and abroad with previous trips to the West End in London, Florence and even New York, whilst maintaining a rigorous series of rehearsals and workshops within college.

Do I need to buy any equipment or kit?

You should purchase files or folders to help you organise your notes, revision and homework. Flat shoes and clothing that you can do floor work and physical theatre work in.

Who will teach me?

Matt is our highly experienced specialist A Level Drama and Theatre teacher

Which topics will I study in my first term?

You will be introduced to a variety of theatrical practices around two of our play texts, Frankenstein and Metamorphosis.

Are there any books I need to buy or useful websites I should look at?

You will need to purchase three play-texts and one text – the reading list will be issued to you upon enrolment. These will almost certainly be available second hand from Amazon, sometimes for pennies rather than pounds.
