

French A Level

What will happen in my first week?

You will investigate the first of many themes focusing on 'Music in the Francophone World'. You will learn A Level study skills as well as developing independent learning strategies while we discuss the layout of the academic year ahead including oral support sessions.

What can I look forward to in my first year?

You will improve your ability to communicate effectively both in speaking and writing by studying, researching and discussing a range of exciting topics. These topics are centred around French speaking societies in terms of social, cultural and historical events (music, art, cinema), there will also be a film study module.

Do I need to buy any equipment or kit?

You should purchase files or folders to help you organise your notes, revision and homework. It is helpful to purchase revision cards in preparation for your exams.

Who will teach me?

Leila is our highly experienced specialist A Level French teacher

Which modules will I study in my first term?

You will study media, art, film and music in the Francophone world alongside learning about youth trends and personal identity.

Are there any books I need to buy or useful websites I should look at?

- We would encourage students to watch 'La Haine' – Mathieu Kassovitz (1995)
- Why not get a head of the class and revise vocabulary and grammatical structures. This is a brilliant website which gives you access to a variety of resources.
