

History A Level

What will happen in my first week?

You will be starting the first module on Tudor History. You will be learning about the Wars of the Roses and how and why Richard III was defeated at the Battle of Bosworth to build a wider context of Tudor England.

What can I look forward to in my first year?

History is a great course leading to an A Level which both top universities and employers greatly respect. A Level History gives you the opportunity to learn a combination of subjects popular at school such as Weimar and Nazi Germany, as well as new topics including Henry VIII and Elizabeth I.

Do I need to buy any equipment or kit?

Please bring your own folder, dividers, lined paper, pens and highlighters. Being organised with your notes is vital to achieve highly in A Level History.

Who will teach me?

We have 3 highly experienced specialist History teachers: Claire, Luke and Mark

Which modules will I study in my first term?

You will be focusing on Tudor England including Henry VII and Henry VIII reigns as well as the challenges they faced.

Are there any books I need to buy or useful websites I should look at?

- You could purchase and start to read one of our textbooks called 'Oxford AQA History for A Level: The Tudors: England 1485-1603' by David Ferriby
- Our exam board (AQA) have a range of online resources on the website including digital wider reading

