

Law A Level

What will happen in my first week?

You will be introduced to the course and provided with an outline of the first term focusing on the structure of the English Legal System. We will outline how we use our booklets for each sub-topic with example responses and potential exam questions.

What can I look forward to in my first year?

You will learn about how the English Legal System works, and will study Criminal Law in depth. We will break down the elements of a crime, and study crimes and defences including: murder; manslaughter; theft; robbery; burglary; assault; battery; ABH; GBH; diminished responsibility; consent; duress and self-defence.

Do I need to buy any equipment or kit?

You should purchase files or folders to help you organise your notes, revision and homework. Pen and lined paper or the modern version is vital for all lessons.

Who will teach me?

We have highly experienced specialist Law teachers: Chris and Jo

Which modules will I study in my first term?

You will focus on the Criminal Law Topic including Actus reus and mens rea; causation; strict liability; attempts; murder; voluntary manslaughter and involuntary manslaughter.

Are there any books I need to buy or useful websites I should look at?

- We would recommend purchasing and starting to read 'WJEC/Eduqas A Level Law Book 1' by Sara Davies and Karen Phillips
- You could also start to read the resources on a useful website: www.sixthformlaw.co.uk
