

Philosophy and Religion A Level

What will happen in my first week?

You will start the year by looking at the Design Argument and considering the extent to which the existence of something as complex as the Universe provides a convincing case for God's existence. (Could anything other than God have created the Universe?)

What can I look forward to in my first year?

You will be discussing key questions such as 'How convincing are arguments for the existence of God?', 'Is there Life after death?', 'Is animal experimentation wrong?' etc. While in the Study of Religion unit you will be examining subjects including: 'The nature of God' and 'The Value of the Bible as a source of religious authority',

Do I need to buy any equipment or kit?

You should purchase files or folders to help you organise your notes, revision and homework. Pen and lined paper or the modern version is vital for all lessons.

Who will teach me?

Luke is our highly experienced specialist A Level Philosophy and Religion teacher

Which modules will I study in my first term?

- Arguments for the existence of God
- Evil and Suffering
- Religious Experience
- Ethics

Are there any books I need to buy or useful websites I should look at?

We would recommend you complete some research on the following links:-
